

Our Beliefs

God is love. God loves you so matter what.

We believe that Christian faith is revealed in Scripture, illuminated by tradition, brought to life in personal experience and confirmed by reason

There are many ways to experience the Holy and Sacred such as with music, nature, art, community and service.

Everybody is a Child of God with a unique identity and a singular experience deserving of respect, We welcome all God's children into our midst.

The Gospel of Jesus Christ offers a revolutionary alternative reality where justice, mercy, and grace rule.

Join us in fostering a community where love and justice intersect. Together, we draw the circle wide, embracing the diversity of human experience.

Draw the Circle Wide

We Gather

Sunday Service 11:00 AM—in Person and on YouTube

“Searching for Sunday”: Sundays at 9:30 AM in the Fellowship Hall - A small group for book study, discussion, and sharing.

Holy Darkness: Wednesdays at 7:00PM in the Sanctuary. Holy Darkness is a contemplative service that combines Taizé-style singing, prayer, spiritual readings, and periods of silence to provide a time of rest and reflection. It is a time to more deeply connect with the soul's longings and the Spirit's assurance.

Just Coffee: Fridays, 2:00-5:00 pm in the sanctuary - Connect over coffee, share music, play games, knit, draw, discuss books, meet your neighbors.
